Moderato

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a flowing melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The tempo and dynamics are indicated as 'Moderato', 'f' (forte), and 'mf' (mezzo-forte). The vocal melody enters with the lyrics 'When the day-time softly closes, There's no need of tears and waiting, Oh O Oh O And the There's no sun in the west reposes, Oh O Oh O That's the time for use less ailing, Oh O Oh O There's a time when hearts are lightest Ev'ry-body's in good cheer That's the balm in the air that's healing Sure a cure for all your ills Watch your'.

"Someone Remembers Though The World Forgets"

It's a Song!

It's even more than a Song!

It has the same effect on one as does
a ray of sunshine after a storm.
It has all the qualities that go to make up a real ballad and it's by CLAIR VAN LYNDEN; this in itself is more than a recommendation; it's an obligation of true merit.

Play the thematic one time, then order
a copy the next time you are downtown.

Some dealers may be out of it, so if
that case arises, tell them to order
it for you, or send fifteen cents to us direct.

It's good! It's Very Good!

IT'S GREAT!!!
